

WINERY OF THE MONTH: ST. CLEMENT

The history of St. Clement parallels that of the Napa Valley. The Victorian house (now home to the winery tasting room) was built in 1878 by Fritz Rosenbaum. The Rosenbaum family made Riesling and Zinfandel in the tiny cellar underneath the house. Over the years the property was owned by a number of colorful characters, and winemaking continued sporadically. The St. Clement moniker was born in 1976 when William Casey bought the house and built a 10,000 case stone winery behind it.

Today, St. Clement continues to build on its legacy of highly respected wines produced in small quantities. By ensuring the continuity and quality of each vineyard source, the highest standards of winemaking are achieved. At the heart of this effort are the crucial long-term commitments from top winegrowers throughout the Napa Valley as St. Clement owns very little vineyard acreage of its own. The result is a wonderful collaboration and a diverse palate of flavors and tannin structures available to Winemaker Danielle Cyrot, allowing her to create wines with exceptional depth and complexity.

St. Clement's portfolio of stunning Napa Valley wines is anchored by the flagship Oropas Cabernet Sauvignon. The first vintage of Oropas was made in 1991, and over the years it's become a style icon for St. Clement – a rich, opulent Bordeaux-style blend that emphasizes concentration, depth and velvety tannins.

St. Clement is open for tasting daily from 10am to 5pm. Several tasting options are offered and tours take place twice a day at 10:30am or 2:30pm by appointment only. Picnic tables are available and with advanced notification of 72 hours, boxed lunches may be ordered. For more information call (707) 265-5000 or visit their website at www.stclement.com.
